VIRGINIA JENKINSON

We have just been yanked back into our job on The News from the pleasant atmosphere of our two avocado trees and the companionship of our six-year-old daughter and her five or six friends who meet at our house any time after 10 in the morning.

Although we had expected to be only a housewife for the summer school vacation period we're back at the old stand while Sewall Clark who has been doing our stint for awhile has a physical checkup... his first in 14 years, he says.

Sewall, who suffered a third degree burn on July 4 while playing with firecrackers(?) worked with a badly infected burn with little complaint, but late Sunday afternoon he felt he must throw the ball to us, while he followed doctor's orders... and right he is. Sewall is a fine writer and a 100 per cent person with whom to work and we are happy he is now obeying his medic.

In the course of supervising a half dozen or more youngsters in the six to eight group, we were interested to see the change of play pattern since "mama was a girl." Many of the activities are based on television and in our back yard we've had "Dragnet," "Topper" and "Medic," the latter of which our daughter was introduced to by a couple of her playmates. This bit of play not only required the equipment found in one of the junior doctor kits, but hammer and nails with which our little darlings expected to piece together one of their most badly damaged patients.

Making mud pies and cakes today is no longer just playing in the mud, but it becomes a cooking school on television... the only thing left that has not changed is the "cowboy and Indian" routine which is just about the same, except for the names, we now have a lot of Hopalong Cassidys and Annie Oakleys that we didn't have in "mama's day."

In spite of luxurious private swimming pools and other items for play, we've a sneaking suspicion that neither the children nor their mothers will be a bit sorry when the school bell rings this fall.

Around the Square

By SEWALL CLARK.

Let's not break a confidence and spread the word around, but here's the lowdown. Every now and then we make a mistake. Fa'hevvenssakes don't tell anybody, but thassafak, palsies. With you it's different because you're so perfect, but with us we are what Al Capp, that comic-strip man who is such an artist, calls a "hoo-man bean." And one of the toughest things about being a "hoo-man bean" is the fact that we make mistakes.

With a businessman, he can make a mistake and shove it under the rug or in the wastebasket, or—as the old saying goes—if you are a doctor and make a mistake you can bury it. But in the newspaper business if you make a mistake it comes out on the front page and there it is, kiddo. What can you do about it?

So there was a mistake in the column last week and what we like about it is the fact that most of you didn't even notice it. That's what we call a real slick mistake. It was such a smoothie that we have to point it out to you. (Why don't you guys wake up?)

Last week we said thanks to "long-time Sierra Madream of the Pasadena Star-News for the letter he put under the office door... The letter was from Harlan Ware with a Foote-Note added..."

So we were talking about long-time Sierra Madream Robert O. Foote. Get it? We thought we were being just as slick as that well known whistle when we gave it the writer's follow-up by referring to it in the next sentence as the "Foote-Note."

Only trouble was, we didn't

Semanons Add 2 Regulations For Clubhouse

Recreation Program Proposals Welcomed

Two new house rules—"No Smoking" and "No Card Playing"—have been added to the operating regulations of the Semanon clubhouse, 37 E. Montecito.

The ban on smoking and card games was voted by the teenagers themselves at a general membership meeting Friday night.

While the smoking issue was admittedly a controversial one, according to Danny Peterson, Semanon president, the major factor in reaching a decision appeared to be a general desire to conform with other successfully established teenage clubs in San Gabriel Valley.

Even for the regular smokers among the older members, the new rules shouldn't be any kind of a hardship if City Rec-

Two committees of the Youth Activities Association will combine forces for the remaining weeks before school opens in order to provide some special interest for open nights at the Semanon clubhouse.

This was arranged at a meeting Monday night of the Youth Activities Association, sponsor of the teenage Semanon Club. The sports and recreation committee, headed by Mrs. Paul Landwehr, and the entertainment committee, headed by Mrs. Jerrel Morris, will put their collective heads together to create some extra fun and add zest to the Monday, Wednesday and Saturday nights that the clubhouse is open to teenage members and guests.

Next meeting of the Youth Activities Association is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15. Frazee Dougherty presided at this week's meeting.

recreation Director Philip Mitchell's plans for new clubhouse equipment go through. Mitchell told Semanon members that he is including in his proposed Recreation Department budget a pool table, and double carom and table shuffle boards for the clubhouse.

He also tentatively proposed such program activities as craft instruction, a hot rod shop, wrestling and tumbling matches and, to balance all the "fun and games" he suggested a "help others" project. He asked for comments regarding the popular appeal of such activities.

Semanon members and guests may put their comments in the new suggestion box in the clubhouse and an analysis will be made at the club's next major meeting at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 8, in the clubhouse.

Parents of teenagers and other interested adults are also being asked for their opinions on such matters as clubhouse

Library Room Available to Local Groups

As local organizations look ahead to their fall and winter programs some attention is being focused on the Community Room in the new Sierra Madre Public Library building as a possible meeting place.

In response to inquiries concerning such use of the Community Room the library board of directors has announced the following necessary regulations and modest rate of fees together with a cordial invitation that the room be used by community groups for which it was planned.

1. Open to the public for cultural, educational and general community activities.

2. Reservations to be made at the library with Mrs. Hinshaw, assistant librarian, on blanks provided.

3. No charge to be made for admissions and no collections to be taken EXCEPT for affairs to raise money for community needs.

4. No organization or person may use the room for personal profit.

5. Fee for use of the room is charged to cover cost of operation to all who use it except organizations auxiliary to the library. As of July 1, 1955, these include the Sierra Madre Historical Society, the Friends

T. M. R. Parker Memorial Rites Today at 11

Memorial services for Thomas Mann Randolph Parker, who died at his home, 675 Orange Drive, following a long illness, will be held today (Thursday) at 11 a.m. at the Church of the Ascension with Bishop Eric Francis Bloy, a friend of long standing, officiating.

Mr. Parker, a native of Virginia, was a namesake of Thomas Jefferson's son-in-law, Thomas Mann Randolph, and a grandson of Col. T. M. R. Talcott, a member of Gen. Robert E. Lee's staff.

He attended the University of Virginia, and during World War II was director of Civilian Training, Pacific Air Force area. After the war he became industrial inspector for the Clary Multiplier Corporation of San Gabriel. He had resided in Sierra Madre for 3½ years.

He is survived by his widow, Marjorie C. Parker. Also two daughters, Ann Randolph Parker of Sierra Madre, and Kirsten S. Parker, San Francisco; two sisters, Mrs. Augusta King, Burbank, and Mrs. John V. Hilton of Cathlamet, Wash., and a brother, Truman A. Parker, Jr., of La Jolla.

Members of the family have requested that no flowers be sent to the memorial service. Instead, they recommend donations to the Cancer Fund.

THOMAS SCHWARTZ AT NIXON DINNER

Thomas M. Schwartz of Sierra Madre, Chairman for the 21st District, Republican Central Committee, was among the 120 guests at the Statler Hotel in Los Angeles last Monday evening, at a dinner honoring Vice President Nixon. The occasion was an informal get-together of Republican leaders.

Schwartz told the News that Nixon's remarks were chiefly an off-the-record report on various subjects, national and international. The vice president was optimistic both about the country's economic outlook, and the strides for peace gained at Geneva.

"At least," he said, "the Russians now can say 'No' with a smile instead of a frown. Although the Russians didn't make any concessions, neither did we, and that's a welcome improvement over previous meetings of that stature."

LOCAL INVENTOR'S PATENT WINS PRIZE

Stephen A. Hays, 575 Brookside Lane, has been awarded a $100 check by North American Aviation, Inc. for developing a new chemical plating process for nickel and cobalt under the company's Invention Award Plan. The plan rewards employees whose inventions are patentable.

An employee of the company since 1952, Hays is a research engineer in the aerophysics department at the Downey plant. His duties involve process development of inorganic and electrochemical materials in connection with North American's work in the field of guided missiles.

LATE BULLETIN

The regular Council meeting at City Hall, scheduled for next Tuesday, will be adjourned to the following Monday, Aug. 29. Three members of City Council are unable to be present next Tuesday, so the meeting is postponed for lack of a quorum.

Float Leaders Going Ahead With Program

Another forward step was accomplished by the Sierra Madre Float Association at City Hall Wednesday, Aug. 10, when two committees were appointed.

Mrs. Ruth Cousins, Mrs. Marguerite Lorch, Mac Cason and Duncan Aldrich were selected to serve on the Theme and Design Committee. Emory Johnston, president, announced that all Sierra Madreams are urged to participate in the contest for selection of the theme and design for the 1956 float. Details of the contest will be drawn up soon. The 1956 Tournament of Roses theme, "Pages From the Ages," offers tremendous possibilities, he said.

Johnston heads the Fund Raising Committee, assisted by Mrs. Sidney Lumbard and Mrs. Marguerite Lorch. Mrs. Lorch will organize the Rose Day sales which last year proved so successful when volunteers

Hornaday's Store Will Open Sept. 1

The finishing touches to Hornaday's department store, 154 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., are being completed ahead of schedule, and the store will open for business, Thursday, Sept. 1.

This variety store, located immediately west of the Toy Village, is store No. 2 for "Gene" Hornaday, owner. The other establishment, which will continue open, is at 2516 E. Colorado, Pasadena. Assisting him in both stores are his wife, Christine, and daughter, Mrs. Eugenia R. Durrell. Also behind the counters at the Sierra Madre store will be Mrs. Helen Perine, of 115 Esperanza, and Mrs. D. C. Summers, 153 W. Grandview.

The gala opening will be celebrated by the gift of tickets, good for exchangeable merchandise prizes valued at $10 each, which will be distributed to the winners on Friday, Sept. 9. No raffle is involved, and there will be no obligation to make a purchase, Hornaday said.

Chest Drive Opens Oct. 17; Goal $8,000

The Community Chest's goal for the 1955-56 drive is $8,000, which is $500 higher than last year. This announcement by Mrs. Edith T. Dane, president, was made after last Tuesday's meeting of the Board of Directors, who set Oct. 17 as the starting date for this year's drive.

For the second consecutive year Newell Barrett, attorney, will be campaign chairman. Assisting him this year are Samuel I. Kirk, last year's president; Charles E. Louk, Mrs. S. C. Lumbard and Aaron Glaser.

Donations to the Community Chest are apportioned to eight non-profit service groups: the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Community Nursery School, Toy Loan, Family Service of Sierra Madre, Visiting Nurse Association, Camp Fire Girls and Santa Anita District YMCA.

Serving on the committee which recommended the budget are A. J. Paus, chairman; Samuel Kirk, L. T. McGinnis, Donald Mon, Margaret Ascher, Mrs. Percy Kortkamp, Mrs. P. R. Woodworth, "Frank" Barbour and Walter Goodwin.

Gallant Vaqueros Ride Pampas Again!

Beneath the aqua Stetsons of the Canyon Vaqueros ride some of the most enterprising young people on this neck of the San Gabriel pampas. With 18 simple rules, and plenty of common sense, this lively bunch united with one mutual interest: to be on, under, around, near or touching a horse whenever secondary aspects of life—such as school—permit.

Although the Canyon Vaqueros is a club, with rules and dues, it is not a closed corporation. Headquarters is located at the Eaton Canyon Stables, where they keep things humming with gymkhanas, horse shows, trail rides and night games. Many events are open to other interested youngsters.

New Association to Act As Fact Finding Body

Everyone is urged to attend a meeting of the Civic Affairs Association in Room 9 at City School, Highland and Auburn Aves., Monday at 7 p.m. This new group is being organized as a fact finding body on ways and means to bring the school standards and services to a point comparable with other schools in surrounding cities.

Members of this new association are deeply concerned with the discontinuance of the services of the music teacher, bus and cafeteria, and the need for keeping the school buildings in adequate repair. The present situation results from the defeat of the proposed school tax increase by the City's voters, and the group seeks to ascertain whether a tax increase is necessary.

The question, "Should there be another tax election?" occupies the minds of the school administrators, the school board, the Civic Affairs Association, the PTA, Kiwanis Club, and just about every one in the City.

Active in the formation of the Civic Affairs Association are John H. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown, Mrs. Edith T. Dane, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert de Weese, Aaron B. Glaser, John Dewar, Raymond B. Pease, Felix Gibian, Richard Hartley, Roy Pickett, and others.

Their first meeting was held about two months ago in the De Weese home. Several meetings have been assembled since, culminating in a two-hour session with the school board last Monday.

The school's dilemma also initiated a round table discussion at Kiwanis last Tuesday, when various facets of the problem were presented by Club President Al Burgess, Kiwanians John Curtis, Lawrence C. Bevington, Charles E. Louk, Milton Valois, Charles Skutt, Robert H. Green, Newell Barrett, Leland Marsh, and others.

School board, told the News the board is anxious to ascertain the public's attitude on the school problem, and whether they would support a tax increase to restore adequate facilities and services. He urged attendance of all persons at the meeting of the Civic Affairs Association next Monday, and at subsequent board meetings.

"School Superintendent Skutt has completed his annual report of the school's activities and finances," continued Valois, "and copies are available at the school office to anyone interested."

adults couldn't agree among themselves on what the kids would want to do. A few young pioneers decided to see what they could accomplish on their own.

At 17, Robert Ward, Pasadena, was one of the founding fathers. Under his leadership, the club was so successful they have elected him to the presidency every year since. Now, at 21, he's the old man. Other officers are Peggy Morgan, treasurer; Linda Boughton, secretary, besides VP Boorman.

Most ambitious project of the year is a November horse show. This big deal involves an outlay of approximately a thousand dollars. Soon after school is out, members don the official white shirt, light blue pants, and the familiar aqua Stetsons, and get to work.

The Vaqueros do it all: determine the classes, mail entry blanks, rent chairs, see to ribbons, posters, programs and parking, invade business establishments for ads and trophies, and arrange special events. It's a first rate show, judged by American horse show rules and judges, and draws entries from all over Southern California.

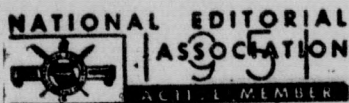

But it isn't always a breeze.

Letter to the Editor

Aug. 12, 1955.

What Do You Think?

Dear Mr. Shippey:

While employed as a teacher a few months ago it was my experience to meet the parents of a senior high school boy who was in trouble. I'll never forget the words of the father, spoken with mother nodding assent. They went like this:

"Mr. Leonard, we know all about our boy's problem, it is the same at home, but look, we feed him, buy his clothes and keep a roof over his head; what more can we do?"

What would your readers say of these parents? Were they selfish? Were they ignorant of a youngster's spiritual and moral need? Or were they just blind?

The headlines in the "News" last week related, "Big Storm Brewing Around Proposed Home for Girls." After reading it, I got to thinking about the parents of the boy spoken of above, and wondering if it is also possible for a community to similarly say, "Look, we pay our taxes, obey our laws, maintain health, sanitation, recreational facilities for our youngsters; what more can we do?"

Sierra Madre refused to let some unfortunate boys park on our northern foothill outskirts. There is little reason to believe that we will have any part of the Bethany Home for Girls either. Would your readers say

Radio to Give Assistance in Car Emergency

In the use of radio for emergency service purposes, the Automobile Club of Southern California became the first Southland motor club to make use of wireless communication in sending aid to motorists victimized by mechanical failure.

Although radio operations are presently confined to Los Angeles County, a club spokesman explained that the transmitter, located on Mt. Wilson, covers an area from Newport Beach to San Fernando Valley.

Radio enables the club to give even faster service and will be particularly valuable in times of disaster, the spokesman said.

Traffic tie-ups due to stalled autos also are being alleviated by the speeded-up emergency service resulting from use of radio.

"The need for faster emergency service is constantly increasing," he said. "Last year in the Southland there were at least two million calls for emergency service, and indications are that this number will total even greater in 1955."

of Sierra Madre, "We are selfish, we are ignorant, we are blind?" So far we are not.

What we are saying "as the storm brews" is, in effect: The supervision of the proposed home is "inexperienced, unqualified." The home can't be licensed. Delinquent girls may be admitted. ("Horror!") "Our zoning laws will forbid!" Are there no selfish reasons involved?

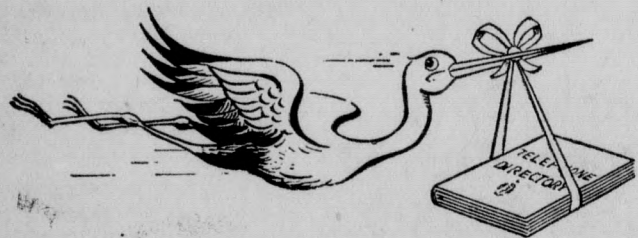

Most of us are agreed that the most important things in life can't be bought with money. (Let your readers label these things, I don't think there will be any arguments.) Some of these important things might be bought with a little dedicated spirit, a little love for the unfortunate, a little property devaluation (real or supposed devaluation that is). And at a bargain price.

I hope Sierra Madre and its "unfortunate" neighborhood will think this Bethany Home for Girls proposition over carefully before sending them the "way of the boys who were undesirable."

Very truly yours,
BOB LEONARD.

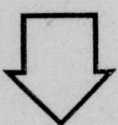

Some find it easier to please others than to please themselves.

What Do You Think?

Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in Mr. Shippey's column are not necessarily those of the editors and publishers of the NEWS. If you disagree with Mr. Shippey, who asks, "What Do You Think?", please address your letters to this paper or to Mr. Shippey. It is the intention of The NEWS to stimulate provocative thought and what YOU think is an important part of our program in presenting both sides to public questions of the day. Naturally, we cannot use letters which are abusive or unsigned. We not only invite, but encourage you to use our "Letters to the Editor" column.

One Los Angeles motor car dealer advertises: "We'll give you $600 trade-in on your old car, even if you have to tow it or push it in." Another says: "If you want $800 trade-in on your 1946 model, bring it in," which carries the suggestion that you can get more for later models. Aren't such things confessions that the cars are priced hundreds of dollars higher than they need be, to carry on profitable business?

Hoo-ray for the Finn Twins for refusing to accept a parole which, in effect, would brand them as criminals. A court decision has agreed that they were being denied their legitimate rights. They tried hard, by other means, to secure recognition of those legitimate rights. When those other means failed, they performed a citizen's arrest on the man who steadfastly refused to consider them, to bring the matter into court. That stratagem caused him half an hour or so of personal embarrassment but did neither his person nor his reputation any real harm.

The only real harm his reputation has suffered has come from his unrelenting attitude toward two war veterans who thought they were within their rights. The general public feels he sent them to jail for a technicality rather than a crime, yet their sentence carries the stigma of crime. The punishment the Finns have received is out of proportion to the fleeting technical annoyance they created. Instead of the business careers the court decision establishing their right to the plane should have made possible, they have had to go to jail 1500 miles from home.

To most of the people I talk with, the whole thing looks far more like spite than justice.

The Tournament of Roses theme next New Year is to be "Pages From the Ages" which seems to mean that any historical event may be pictured in flowers. If the Sierra Madre float isn't better supported financially than it was last year, we again will have to be represented by something very small and inexpensive, despite the fine efforts of many loyal citizens who give generously of time and effort.

Oh, well, if we don't have money for expensive flowers, I have a fig tree which bears big leaves. Our float might represent Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. If we can't stir up some real community pride, I'll start saving fig leaves right away, for the tree is bare in December.

But if we do stir up real community pride, we can return to our days of glory. Last year

CAMOUFLAGE

Usually people who carry a big sign claiming perfection have something to hide behind it.

This year the Foat Committee would like every citizen who has a good idea for the theme of the float to send it in. It will be welcomed, with or without a small donation, and a prize will be given for the theme suggested. If you ain't got no money, a promise of physical help will be welcomed, too.

The committee would like to make our next float the people's choice, with the interest of everyone.

When it comes to considering locations for children's homes, it seems to me that some of our steady "churchgoers" are mighty poor Christians. That, of course, is my opinion. How about you? What do you think?

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD ALEXANDER DAVEY exchanged nuptial vows in a double ring ceremony July 31 in the Alhambra Friends Community Church. The bride, the former Janet Ruth Cosand, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oran Thomas Cosand of Alhambra. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Davey, 84 Monterey Lane.

Joan Lucille Young Weds Glen B Low In First Methodist Church Aug. 7

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Joan Lucille Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeRoy Young, 214 Olivera Lane, and Glen B. Low, son of Mrs. J. C. Low, Sr., of Missouri, Aug. 7 in the First Methodist Church of Pasadena.

The bride was attired in a ballerina length bridal gown fashioned of white embroidered nylon over taffeta. Her fingertip length French illusion veil fell from a floral wreath and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and orchids.

Patricia Marshall was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. A. W. McKinney and Mrs. William B. Burns, sisters of the bride, and Marjorie Hamm, a cousin of the bride. The bridal attendants wore dresses of white nylon dotted with orchid over orchid taffeta and carried bouquets of white carnations tied with orchid and white bows.

J. C. Low served his brother as best man and the ushers were Robbie Low, Bob Gifford and William Burns.

The bride's mother was attired in an aqua lace over taffeta gown and the groom's mother chose a navy blue net ensemble. Both mothers wore corsages of tiny pink rosebuds.

Burdick-Linke Rites Solemnized Aug. 13 at St. Rita's Church

Sharon Billie Lincke, daughter of Mrs. William Otto Lincke, 735 Canyon Crest Dr., and the late Mr. Lincke, became the bride of Robert Dawson Burdick, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson Burdick of Pasadena, Aug. 13 in St. Rita's Catholic Church. Father Thomas O'Malley officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Garrae, chose a Chantilly lace over taffeta gown, fashioned with a high neckline with a row of tiny buttons down the front. Her French illusion veil was held in place by a net Juliette cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bridal bouquet fashioned of white carnations, stephanotis and centered with white orchids.

Mrs. James L. Barkley of Puente served her sister as matron of honor and Miss Lee Ervin was bridesmaid. Both girls wore orchid net over taffeta gowns and matching off-the-face hats. They carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Richard Bartholomew was best man and Vincent Ross and Granville Thurman were ushers.

The bride's mother was attired in a slate blue lace over pink taffeta dress and pink accessories.

The groom's mother wore a brown chiffon organdy gown, brown accessories and picture hat. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

Flower arrangements of white glads, stock, asters, chrysanthemums and snapdragons were used in the church decorations as well as in the church hall where a reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

Miss Kate B. Dawson of Kansas City, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Claire Glenney of Republic, Wash., aunt of the bride, were in attendance at the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of St. Rita's Parochial School and Pasadena City College.

The groom attended Stanford University where he was affiliated with Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity and is now attending Occidental College where he is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. Following a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe the newly married couple will make their home in South Pasadena. The groom will return to Occidental College next month to complete his last year's work.

St. Rita's Guild Plans Coffee Hour

Mrs. Earl Kaufman, 1354 Michillinda, is graciously opening her new home for a mid-summer social coffee hour, sponsored by St. Rita's Guild, Thursday, Aug. 25, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Hostesses for the affair, room mothers active during the last school year, will be under the direction of Mrs. Tom Marchine and Mrs. E. Louis Civerolo.

Highlight of the occasion will be the awarding of attractive door-prizes. This is the first party of its kind the Guild has planned and it is hoped everyone will make an effort to be in attendance since the members would like to make it an annual affair.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Kaufman at SYcamore 5-6234.

S. K. Lessley Admitted To General Hospital

S. Kyle Lessley, 374 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., who suffered a stroke over a month ago, has been admitted to the General Hospital in Los Angeles for treatment. Hospital officials have stated he is doing as well as can be expected and is not on the critical list.

The News stated in an earlier issue, by mistake, that it was Mrs. Lessley who had been stricken.

Eastern Star Ice Cream Social To Be Annual Event

Because of the tremendous success of the old-fashioned Ice Cream Social held at the Masonic Temple Sunday afternoon, members of the Eastern Star are making plans to continue the event as an annual affair, according to William F. Bowers, Worthy Patron.

Approximately 300 guests were served during the hours of 2 to 7 p.m. Proceeds will provide new drapes and help in the redecorating of the building.

Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F. and A. M., and the Order of Eastern Star put on the event. The second Sunday in August has been selected for 1956, to repeat the occasion, according to Bowers.

Eastern Star Social Club Dinner Monday

Members of the Eastern Star Social Club have scheduled a potluck dinner Monday, Aug. 22, at 6:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Mrs. Grace Hinton, general chairman, will be assisted by the officers of the club, Mrs. Margaret Sierts, Mrs. Marie Vanderpool and Mrs. Dorothy Kadison.

Those planning to attend the event should call Mrs. Hinton at CUster 5-9756 or Mrs. Laura Williams at CUster 5-2107.

The "Ice Cream Social" sponsored by the Sierra Madre Masonic Lodge and Sierra Madre Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star held last Sunday in the Temple was a great success and plans are being made to have another in the not too distant future.

Entries will be accepted until 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 26. All applications, with the $1 entry fee, should be sent to Peter Cowell at 109 E. Grandview. Drawing for partners will be held that evening.

SCIENCE SERMON ON "GOD AS MIND"

That God is supreme in wisdom and gives this wisdom to those who truly ask it is the substance of the Lesson-Sermon on "Mind" to be read in Christian Science services Sunday.

The Golden Text quotes Paul writing to the church at Corinth and saying, "Who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him?" (I Cor. 2:16). In a letter to the Philippians he admonishes, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." (Phil. 2:5).

As a correlative to the latter quotation Mary Baker Eddy states in her textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Having one God, one Mind, unfolds the power that heals the sick, and fulfills these sayings of Scripture, 'I am the Lord that healeth thee,' and 'I have found a ransom.' When the divine precepts are understood, they unfold the foundation of fellowship, in which one mind is not at war with another, but all have one Spirit, God, one intelligent source, in accordance with the Scriptural command: 'Let this Mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.'" (p. 276).

'SO YOU'RE PSYCHO' IS DR. BARNHART'S SUBJECT

The subject of Dr. Ethel Barnhart's sermon next Sunday at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd. in Pasadena will be "So You're Psychosomatic." Services begin at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Jack Barnard Named New Director Of Hastings Nursery

Mrs. Jack Barnard has been named new directress of the Hastings Ranch Nursery School, succeeding Mrs. John Teasdale, who has retired.

She comes well recommended to the school, which has received statewide recognition since its founding little more than two years ago by a group of parents in the Hastings area. Since then some 125 little pupils have been "graduated" into Field and Don Benito kindergartens, and their parents have learned, through working at the school, how important constructive and imaginative play is to the pre-schooler's development.

Mrs. Barnard comes to the school well qualified, having had numerous courses required for parent education play group leadership, as well as additional units relating to nursery school materials and procedures, counseling and discussion techniques. Her adult education credentials are in parent education and child development.

For the past three years she worked in the parent education play group program as a teacher in the Pasadena City School system (extended day). Before that time she was a play group teacher in Alhambra city schools for two years.

Mrs. Barnard has taught church school teacher training courses at First Methodist Church in Alhambra and was superintendent of pre-kindergarten groups for three years. She lives with her husband and two sons, ages 10 and 13, at 408 Adelyn Dr., San Gabriel.

American Legion Auxiliary Reviews Accomplishments

The American Legion Auxiliary organization boasts of being one of the "Big Ten" nationally with 45,000 members in California. A tremendous and varied schedule of assistance is being outlined by the American Legion women for the coming year.

The American Legion's program of aid to veterans and their families includes eye-glasses, corrective shoes, dental care, college educations and Christmas gifts.

The Auxiliary program in veterans' hospitals is well known. The proceeds of the 1,500,000 poppies sold in California at the last sale will be used by the welfare fund for child welfare and rehabilitation.

Part of the rehabilitation program is devoted to providing loans, gifts and scholarships for higher education and the financing of correspondence courses, through the University of California at Berkeley, for hospitalized veterans and those recuperating at home.

Last year alone, the Auxiliary in this state spent approximately $192,163 for rehabilitation work and $168,245 for child welfare work.

Another part of this year's program will be promoting national security through the sale of Series E Bonds and stamps

Sierra Madre Unit 297 will have its share in this vast project. The members will meet Thursday, Aug. 25, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Eva Graves, 544 Oakdale Dr.

● FIRE FLAMES

By JAMES HEASLEY

Way back in the year 1919 Sierra Madre had a serious fire along Windsor Lane. The fire department, composed of local businessmen, had great difficulty putting it out because of poor equipment. They had only hand hose carts and little of anything else.

This situation encouraged the forming of a genuine fire department and such men as J. F. Sadler, Greer Caskey, L. E. Sharp, A. E. Pettit, M. D. Welscher, W. W. Felgate, and L. Deitz made the board of directors.

The first meeting was held June 16, 1921, and a volunteer system developed. From then on it became known far and wide as the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department. Its first chief was Earl Topping.

Arrangements then were made for the purchase of a fire truck. After considerable investigation and demonstration, a new American La France was driven to the station for keeps.

The truck became known as "Old Snort" because of its peculiar coughing, snorting sound which distinguished it for many years until a mechanic took it over at the shop of Ray Penn and diminished the sound so that it has been operating much better ever since, and certainly with fewer "snorts."

The old truck has answered many calls and served the city well. To the writer, it always will be a favorite if for no other reason than because he has driven it more than anyone else. (Go ahead. Argue.)

The truck has now been placed in the area of Alta Vista Drive, where water supply is plentiful with much pressure. Being capable of carrying a goodly supply of hose, it is an added asset to fire safety of the canyon district. Old Snort has left the main station, but will be ready when needed. Because of the modern day traffic, the old boy must be driven with care, the driver to be well aware that only two wheel brakes are not as powerful as the four wheel.

We are very proud of our new "Crown" fire truck. It is the latest in fire equipment. Much consideration and investigation was given before a decision was made for the purchase.

Emblem Club Has Initiation Rites

Members of the Monrovia Emblem Club will have their family potluck dinner tonight in the Elks Clubhouse. Four new members, Mrs. Robert Myers, Mrs. Walter Walls, Mrs. William Pepley and Mrs. Earl Duff, were initiated into the Monrovia Emblem Club at the group's last meeting. Mrs. Edward Bonds was reinstated at the same time. Past presidents were hostesses for the evening. Announcement has been made of the charter members and past president night which is scheduled as a fall event.

Walter E. Swanks Visit L. P. Marshes

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Swank and children, Ronald, Margaret and Marilyn, of Oakville, Ia., are spending part of their vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland P. Marsh, 657 W. Grandview.

Mrs. Swank (Elaine) is the daughter of Mr. Marsh.

ANITA JEAN HERSCHER'S engagement to Jean Lewis Miller, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean L. Miller of Covina, was announced by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Lawrence Herscher, 870 Fallen Leaf Road.

● Scanning the Sports Scene With BOB BROGGER

The Pasadena Post 13 Black Cats, who took part in the popular American Legion baseball tourney in Anaheim a couple of weeks ago, lost the first game they played to Fullerton—last year's winner of the tournament—2-1. However the two boys from this metropolis who play on the team—Laury Cavalier, captain and shortstop, and a newcomer to this town, Dan McMann, first base—did pretty good despite the loss. Laury had one hit for three times at bat, and made no errors. "Dan-the-Man" came to bat four times and pounded out one hit.

This tournament is so important that there was a scout from practically every team in the majors. Pittsburgh had two scouts. Of course that's not unusual for Pitt. They're so hard up now, that the other day I saw one of their scouts looking over the Little League players.

Although Laury and Dan had a good night, none of the scouts has talked or written to them yet. But they have plenty of time to wait. They're only 17.

Former Pasadena High star, Lee Walls, now a Hollywood Star, will hit many a home run before his career is over. But it is very doubtful if he'll ever forget the one he hit against Sacramento on June 30 to beat the Solons 11-10. In the eighth inning, Lee dropped a high fly down the right field line about 40 feet in back of first. Three Sacramento players looked at each other as the ball dropped between them—hitting the wooden foul line and caroming off into right centerfield. Before the ball could be retrieved, Lee had scored on a very funny inside-the-park "home."

That American League race is getting just a little bit too close for comfort. Looking back quite a few issues, we see we picked the Yankees and Giants to play in the World Series. The Giants are now about 15 games out of first place and I just can't understand it. They have exactly the same team they had last year except for Sal Maglie.

Maybe the Dodgers were right when they said the New Yorkers were lucky last year. Speaking of the Dodgers, we don't think they'll have too rough a time from here on in. They've really made the other teams look sick this year.

Over in the American, we're still gonna go along with the Yankees. This time of the year is meat for those guys. The Yankees always show their greatness in these close stretch drives.

14-Year-Old Wins Swim Honors

Annie Thayer, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Thayer, 646 W. Highland, and Robin Little, 15, of Arcadia, won first place in the duet division of the Southern Pacific A.A.U. Women's Outdoor Synchronized Swimming Championships at Wilmington on Aug. 11.

Members of the Pasadena Athletic Club, the two girls won second place last spring in the Junior division of the same event.

They have given exhibitions in synchronized swimming at the Huntington Hotel, Caltech, the Valley Hunt Club, Pasadena Athletic Club and many private residences.

No woman ever really makes a fool of a man—she merely lets nature take its course.

Like an echo across the years, discoveries in medicine have made illness time shorter and shorter. Our prescription department shelves are lined with such specific drugs, ones that were not even known a short time ago. Some are expensive... until you realize they cut weeks, months, years, even a lifetime off the length of an illness. Then they become the biggest bargains in civilization. Next time your doctor prescribes, our skilled pharmacists will be pleased to compound such a bargain for you.

GARDEN NOTES

RECONDITIONING THE LAWN

Don't despair if your lawn has taken on the appearance of a football field after a rough game. Whatever the cause for the decline of your lawn it can be rejuvenated, assures the California Association of Nurserymen.

There are many reasons for lawn decline—too frequent cutting, diseases, pests, weeds, improper watering, loss of soil fertility, soil compaction, the wrong seed for local conditions. But, in general, whatever the trouble, there is something you can do to restore its former beauty.

Begin your rejuvenation program by spiking to a depth of three or four inches where soil is badly compacted, irrigating the surface first. Use a hollow-tined fork. Remove any hard spots in the lawn and replace with new soil; reseed or re-plant with sod taken from the edge of the lawn. Reseeding or resodding will be necessary if insects or diseases have made dead spots in the lawn.

Top-dressing will always make a lawn perk up considerably. Mow the grass closely, cross-rake, weed and spike if necessary. Apply the top-dressing using ordinary garden soil, a compost or humus to a uniform depth and rake it with the back of the rake.

It may be necessary in some cases to replace the lawn entirely. In replacing the lawn you will need to remove all the present turf and prepare the seedbed as you did when you first put in your lawn—raking, filling in low spots, fertilizing, scattering the seed, mulching and watering.

Summer Play Ending;
Back to School Soon

A watermelon feed will conclude the summer recreation program for elementary school age children, in Sierra Madre Park, next Wednesday.

Philip Mitchell, recreation director, has scheduled the last three days to include crafts, games, stories, a tug-of-war, the feed, and other special events to wind up the park activities. Hours are from 10 to 3, with a supervised lunch at 12:30 for those who bring a sack lunch.

For the last two weeks, Day Camp in Sierra Madre Villa Park has replaced the daily City Park program. Over 75 children have answered the 7 a.m. breakfast call.

Final fling for the campers is a visit to the Arboretum in Arcadia tomorrow morning.

WILLIAM RETHY PINCH HITS

Dr. William G. Rethy, well known around Sierra Madre for the past 12 years, will fill prescriptions at the Medical Center branch of Hartman's Pharmacy for the next two weeks, while "Buddy" Hartman replaces Dr. Wright, on vacation from the Baldwin store.

Little Coast League Maps 1956 Season

Little Coast League coaches met with Recreation Director Philip Mitchell Monday evening to formulate plans for the 1956 season. Present were Frank Simon, Jack Christensen, Bill Bodley, Carlton Scalzo, and Ed Woodrich.

As a protection for the boys, new rules will include the wearing of shoes and long pants for all games. The T-shirts and caps also will be ordered well in advance of the season, and passed out to the boys when the teams are chosen.

The 1956 season will be scheduled by the steering committee to conclude by July 31, as family vacations have drastically reduced number of players this month.

Coaches also decided to reinstate the bidding system. Players will be chosen by points at a general meeting. The present system proved unsatisfactory, according to Mitchell.

At the general meeting, the coaches will bid by points, with the boys not informed of their value. At the same meeting, lists of rules, behavior, sportsmanship, penalties and such will be presented and explained.

Local organizations again will sponsor the teams, and will be contacted 30 days in advance of the season. At that time, the coaches also will be selected.

Tomorrow evening Hollywood meets Sacramento on the Sierra Madre diamond, and Oakland plays San Diego at Sierra Mesa school.

Vaqueros Again!

In 1952, the first annual show was scheduled for cloudless October. Enveloped in unprecedented moisture, the show netted only $150. Not too good a return on a thousand dollar investment and months of work.

But the Vaqueros didn't miss a hoof-beat.

The second year they switched to November with the weatherman's blessing. The day dawned a clear, beautiful, sunny 106 degrees. Neither mad dogs, Englishmen, nor Southern Californians ventured into the mid-day sun, and the club lost $350.

But with the determination that drives parents-crazy, this posse comitatus came back the third year, and with Chamber of Commerce weather was $500 closer to the clubhouse toward which their efforts are aimed.

Listening in on a business meeting is a revelation of how the club operates. President Ward presides. This remarkable, rangy horse-wrangler appears to drape himself loosely on his mother's pet-point Hepplewhite, but underneath the languor he's as alert as a skittish colt. When the discussion starts a round Robin Hood's barn, Bob yanks on the reins and they're back on the trail.

Most startling discovery is to see the members raise their hands to speak, plus the fact that they don't interrupt each other. (Adult organizations, please note.)

During the discussion, Bob weighs the various opinions, tempers them with common sense, and announces what direction will be taken. Whether it's insight, or experience, it works—most of the time. Who's perfect?

The Vaqueros provide a good part of their social life with swims, dances, barbecues, banquets, whatever is "in" at the moment. They also participated in a March of Dimes, afoot and ahorse, collecting $256.80 on Pasadena's main thoroughfare.

Recently a drill team was organized, under the command of Forest Blakeslee, a cavalryman from the days when discipline meant "jump." The kids do! And love it! During hot weather games are held at the stables on Wednesday evenings starting at 6:30.

There's lots more. These Canyon Vaqueros are a busy group. As any parent knows, a teenager can put in a full day cleaning someone else's stable, although he may not be strong enough to lift a dish towel at home.

A riding club is not the panacea for the world's ills, but it is an example of one type of activity that's a good outlet. A youngster who is currying a horse in the morning, and receiving the plaudits of the crowd in the afternoon, is certainly being broadened with a clear view of both ends of the situation.

Night on the Fireline

The headlamps on the crew's helmets made moving dots of light through the smoke. Once in a while the stars shone through, clear and cold. You could hear the brush pop and snap as the nightwind fanned the fire closer up the mountain. The only other sound was the scraping of shovels in the rocky ground as the men raced to clear another fire-break before the flames reached the ridge.

These men were dog-tired. They'd lived on cold lunches, little water and no sleep for days. A change in the wind now could trap them. Some might not see another dawn.

Yet these men and their equipment are needlessly endangered because someone tossed a lighted cigarette from their speeding car.

Please help prevent fires by being careful when driving through our brush or timberland.

print the name of Robert O. Foote.

As Bob says, the whole thing is a piece of trivia—for after all, who cares?—but we give it to you as an example. It just shows-to-go-you people in journalism can make a mistake that worries them a lot more than it worries you.

Speaking of mistakes and printing and proof reading, we would like to come out with the flat statement that we like the telephone company. Any telephone company. After all, what could we do without our telephone—especially in the newspaper business?

Yours truly also believes that the telephone book, in its own way, is a work of art. Just imagine having to proof-read all those names, addresses, and numbers. How those telepeople manage such a high degree of accuracy is something we have never learned. Might make a good feature story. (Okay, kids, go right ahead. Steal the idea. We have plenty more where that one came from.)

So we also want to put in a plug, completely unsolicited, for the smaller Sierra Madre Area City Directory. We do not know one person connected with it. But we do know that it is practically our journalistic "Bible." We reach for it untempered times a day, checking names, addresses, and telephone numbers.

It even lists the streets—telling you whether they are titled as avenues, boulevards, roads, lanes, or what have you—and on the next page it gives you a map of Sierra Madre. All this, and haven't too.

And if you think it isn't our constant haven, information-wise, just drop by the office some day and have a look at the little book—completely dog-eared and exhausted. The only name attached to it is the "Pacific Directory Company" in Arcadia, but whoever you are,

pal, many thanks.

This paper makes a great effort for accuracy, and you've helped us a lot.

There was a mysterious stranger in town not long ago. He came to the News to gain information for an outfit that is, he said, considering making quite an investment here. Wanted to know if we, or the Chamber of Commerce, had an up-to-date booklet stating the facts about Sierra Madre. We said we had nothing very complete along those lines, although we have heard people talking about the need for such a publication for quite some time.

Maybe we'll get one, one of these days.
